Q2 2026

The background of the slide is a dark green gradient with a dynamic, abstract pattern of bright green and white light streaks. These streaks originate from a central point on the left and radiate outwards towards the right, creating a sense of motion and energy. The streaks vary in thickness and brightness, with some appearing as sharp, thin lines and others as broader, more diffuse bands of light.

Metric Definitions

Contract Value (CV) represents the value attributable to all of our recurring research-related contracts. It is calculated as the annualized value of all contracts in effect at a specific point in time, without regard to how much revenue has already been recognized. Contract value primarily consists of subscription-based products for which revenue is recognized on a ratable basis, except for the entitlements embedded in our subscription products, such as event tickets and advisory sessions, for which the revenue is recognized when the item is utilized. Contract value also includes our reprint products, as these products are used throughout the year by our clients and are typically renewed.

Wallet Retention represents a measure of the CV that we have retained with clients over a twelve-month period, including increases or decreases in retained client CV during the period. Wallet retention is calculated on a percentage basis by dividing the annualized contract value of our current clients, who were also clients a year ago, by the total annualized contract value from a year ago.

Metric Definitions

Client Retention represents the percentage of client companies (defined as all clients that buy a CV product) at the prior-year measurement date that have active contracts at the current-year measurement date.

Client Count is the total of enterprise clients with an active CV contract.

Free Cash Flow is calculated as cash flow generated from operating activities less cash paid for property and equipment.
